

Art of the PACIFIC NORTHWEST

IN THE FOLLOWING PAGES, WE PRESENT A SAMPLING OF ARTISTS WHO HAIL FROM OREGON AND WASHINGTON. AMONG THEIR VARIED OEUVRES, YOU'LL FIND DEPICTIONS OF SCENIC SIGHTS throughout their region, from impressionistic portrayals of mountain tarns and snowy peaks like Mount Rainier to vibrant representations of the towering hemlocks and the abundant wildlife that inhabits its lush forests. Other artists portray sights farther afield, from California seascapes and southwestern mesas to bustling European cafés. You'll also find colorful still lifes, figurative works, and sculptural creations that prove there's never a dearth of inspiration, nor talent, among artists of the Pacific Northwest.

Randall Tillery

Twenty years of hard work is paying off for national award winning artist Randall Tillery. The recent additions of gallery representation in Santa Fe, New Mexico; and Koloa, Kauai attest to that. "I love painting almost every subject, but because of my deep connection with nature, landscape painting and plein air painting in particular has an unescapable draw to me". Representation: Weiss Fine Art, Santa Fe NM; Red Koi Collection, Koloa Kauai; American Visions Gallery, Folsom CA; Brian Scott Gallery, Brookings OR.
◀ Nature's Show, oil on canvas, 20 x 16.

www.randalltillery.com

Neal Philpott

Kneeland Gallery, Ketchum, Idaho, July 2018
Roby King Gallery, Bainbridge Island, Washington, October 2018
Gallery 903, Portland, Oregon, August 2019
Sugarman Peterson Gallery, Santa Fe, New Mexico

▲ On the Way, oil, 26 x 40.

neal.philpott@me.com | www.nealphilpott.com